

Fall 2008

Dear Parents:

We are pleased to inform you that your child has applied to participate in the nationally recognized College Now program sponsored by The City of New York. By enrolling in College Now, he/she can follow in the footsteps of program alumni who experienced the challenge of taking college credit and/or basic skills courses at their high schools, before or after the regular school day, at no cost. The credits earned while in the program can be transferred to almost any college in the United States. From past experience, we know that the work your child does while in the College Now program will not only make his/her college career easier, it will also result in a savings of real time and tuition dollars in the future.

Since 1984, the College Now program administered by Kingsborough Community College has helped over 85,000 high school students make a smooth transition to higher education. Our graduates have entered college with fewer remedial needs and earned higher grade point averages than students who did not take advantage of the program. However, in order for students to succeed in College Now, parental involvement is critical.

To learn more about the many benefits this program offers, we cordially invite you, your child and other interested family members to attend a College Now Open House:

WHEN	Thursday, November 20, 2008
WHERE	New Dorp High School, 465 New Dorp Lane Staten Island
ROOM	Auditorium
TIME	7:00 to 8:30 p.m.
PARKING	Available at the High School and at the Adjacent Miller Field
